For the week of 11.21 – 11.23

Jaguar Community,

Last week was another great week with so much we got done. In your email you should have received your child's tardy/attendance sheet as an attachment. The attachment is from the beginning of the year. Please speak with your children about their attendance, as attendance matters and makes a huge difference in their ability to learn. If they aren't in the room, they are missing the very important lessons.

Over the weekend we had another Saturday filled with Jaguar adventures! The hiking club went on a great morning hike and the flag football team made an impressive showing. Pictures are on social media so check them out.
