Parent Information For the week of 11/22 - 11/24

Jaguar Community,

This is a shortened week due to the Thanksgiving holiday. I am thankful to all of you for your continual support of teachers and your children. 2nd quarter students have been challenged academically. Many are adjusting to that challenge. Some are making the choice to not do work. Please open ParentVue and check on your child's attendance and grades.

Progress report grades are viewable NOW. There is only 17 actual days of school left so any missing work must be done TODAY. Please help your child organize their time and prioritize their grades. Teachers are working with them here but we want as many students as possible on honor roll for 2nd quarter.

Check out our social media as last week we had lots of wonderful things happening at Valencia. Face Book, Instagram & Twitter @Valencia_Jags

- Bathrooms Open – H pod and D pod bathrooms are open every day before and after lunch. During lunches we ONLY have C-pod bathrooms open. We do have adults monitoring so there should be easy movement for students.
- Here is the link for the Choir to buy pizza kits. Feel free to share!
